Twin Flames

“Love does not consist in gazing at each other but in looking together in the same direction.”

~ Antoine de Saint-Exupery

The longing for our perfect mate is a need engraved in our DNA.

We harbor a desire for restoration and unity, and search for the piece that is always missing.

In our journey through life, the search continues for something that can't be readily found.

It is a quest for wholeness.

We search for ourselves in others in a quest for healing and integration, in the constant pursuit of the final point of balance: the Zero Point where our Matter meets our Higher Self or Soul, where matter meets anti-matter.

One Note inserted once again into the Symphony of Creation.

In the beginning, the Twin Flames¹ were created in God, the Alpha and the Omega.

In an ovoid white-fire-spirit-light, the Soul was split just like the atom into two identical parts, or Twin Flames: each with the same identical soul blueprint, but with different purposes.

One Essence divided itself into two exactly equal and opposite intonations in order to experience form. The Twin Flames were created together, in the dawn of time, like the two faces of the same coin.

But as the three-dimensional experience unfolded, they became separated by a dualistic system which pulled them into an unbalanced equilibrium, expressing itself through two extended and separated forms.

The Yin Yang symbolizes the Twin Flames' complementary sides: eternal love spiraling into infinity. The Color of this sublime Union is blue...a spiraling blue...

Sometimes, we meet someone with the similar frequency of our Twin Flame and this brings a feeling of Oneness.

The Love between Twin Flames is a Gate of Possibility to experience Union in a multi-dimensional way.

It can also represent the prototype of the "sacred marriage" - a reflection of the sacred union of the Divine Masculine and Feminine within the Source.

The Union of the Twin Flames is one of Service. It should not be romanticized in the context by which one perceives the male and female relationship. The Service of the Twin Flames is not only planetary but also cosmic and Universal.

The Twin Flame connection is always a triad involving the Divine Spirit / All That Is.

Two Beings connected by Soul, connected to God.

The spiritual connection with our Twin Flame is intense and profound.

Many may experience, whether consciously or in a dream state, a feeling of connection in the form of a matrix of golden white threads of light, because this connection continues to exist in various dimensions and frequencies, beyond the realms of duality.

Twin Flames may not unite physically here on Earth. The relationship may last many lifetimes on the spiritual level alone, while one or both may be living physically with another soul in karmic agreement.

They may not be together in this dimension, but they have not been truly apart.

Only when both original halves of the Twin Flame become strong pillars on their own, when both have healed and resolved their karmic ties in the present life; can they finally unite to fulfill their Divine Purpose.

The Breath of God is the force of Divine Action. Once the true Twin Flames, the two parts of the Original

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

Soul, the Monad², have come into union and are reunited through the Breath of God; NO element or energy from any octave, dimension, or frequency can shift the connection.

The reunion of the Twin Flames is ultimately the Unification, or personification, of the Trinity: The Twin Flames and the Christ Consciousness.

The reunion of these parts will bring back to the world an unconditional love and service to mankind, which will transcend all definitions of male/female unions on this planet.

Through this, we as Souls can finally manifest the higher Dimensional Frequencies of Oneness.

This is the ultimate goal: the reunion with our Twin Flame, to create and amplify the Harmonic Intonation of Completion and to be of service to all Sources of Goodness and Pure Light.

² Monad is a term used by ancient the philosophers Pythagoras, Parmenides, Xenophanes, Plato, Aristotle, and Plotinus as a term for God or the First Being, or the Totality of All Being. (Wikipedia)

Other Soul Relationships

"Just like a sunbeam can't separate itself from the sun, and a wave can't separate itself from the ocean, we can't separate ourselves from one another. We are all part of a vast sea of love, one indivisible divine mind."

~Marianne Williamson

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

It is known that when God Creates, He create in Composition, like a grand symphony. In the masterpiece of Creation, the generation of souls burst like notes in the symphony. Each note is a different tones, a different octave; and together, they make the Harmony of the Universe expand and prosper.

The definition of Soul Mates is all the Souls created at the same moment of the Divine outburst. The collection of Soul Mates composes our Soul Family. During our Journeys through lives, we will encounter and develop individual relationship with many.

Embedded into the Cycles of Samsara³, are the life lessons. These are necessary steps for the developing and expansion of our Soul Journeys. During these cycles, many of our Soul Mates and Souls from other Soul Groups will have relational interface with us. We are all partners enrolled in Earth School and each of us are in different stages of the learning process. Many of these interactions end up resulting in some sort of Karmic responsibility. These are Karmic Relationships.

Many Karmic Relationships are not necessarily romantic; many can be found in our daily lives though siblings, parents, extended family and friends.

The underlining truth in all of this is the reality that we were all created with a purpose and that we are never alone. As the Universe unfolds itself, following the planned path of pure Creation and Love, we learn the beauty and challenges embodied in Human Existence.

There are many other types of Soul Relationships which will not be gone into detail here. What is important is the understanding we are all Multi-Dimensional Beings. Consciously or not, we interact with other Beings from different dimensions and different stages of consciousness. A classic example of this is the connection we have with our animals, familiars and even Otherkins⁴.

³ Samsara refers to the cycle of reincarnation, or rebirth.

⁴ Otherkin refers to races other than Human, i.e. Angles, Extraterrestrials, or Elementals.

The Original Wound

"I seem to have loved you in numberless forms; numberless times... in life after life, in age after age, forever. My spellbound heart has made and remade the necklace of songs that you take as a gift; wear round your neck in your many forms, in life after life, in age after age, forever."

~ Rabindranath Tagore

In the very moment of our Creation as the original undivided Soul, the Monad, we were released from the pure source of God's Mind, the Un-manifested Universe⁵, and projected toward the Universe Created, the Manifested Universe⁶. At this moment, the Monad is split in two and we experience for the first time the Realm of Duality and the interaction between polarities.

This is when our original blueprinted matrix suffered the first and original Pain of Separation. The original energies in the Monad are that of a Triad. The Twin Flames are conceived as both the Alpha and the Omega within the pure Love of God's Divine Presence. The original separation is not only between our separate halves, but the apparent separation from the Divine Source.

This Ancestral Wound is the sole responsible reason for the perceived sensation of incompleteness. Reaction to this manifests itself as the pursuit of happiness and completion through each Cycle of Embodiment.

The Journey back to the Source is one of the many ways to start the process of Healing. There are many Paths to choose from, and the guides and teachers may vary; but the Soul's expedition is the same on each Path of Learning, Understanding and Healing.

The Healing Blessing from the Twin Flame incorporates the primordial elements of Creation and incites our Higher Selves to expand and master certain virtues, and actively practice of the true Gifts of the Spirit.

⁵ Referred to as Ayn Soph in Qabalistic texts.

⁶ Referred to as the Realm beyond the Three Veils of Negative Existence in Qabalistic texts.

Healing the Original Wound and Reconnecting with the Divine

“In the beginning When God created the Heavens and the earth...Then God said, let it be light and there was light...God saw how good the light was.

...God called the light from the darkness. God called the light day and the darkness he called Night. (The First day).

Then God said, “Let be a dome in the middle of the waters, to separate one body of water from another. And so it happened: God made the dome, and it separated the waters above the dome from the water the dome. God called it sky”. Evening Came, and the morning followed-the second day.”

~ The New American Bible

The Bible refers to the days of God’s Creation as the Divine Days. The Power of Conception on the second day resumed with the creation of the Realms of Duality. The ancient teaching of Kaballah refers to all the energy and patterns of dissention, separation and isolation as created from the abode of the energy emanated from the Second day. The separation of heaven and earth was not an action that necessarily pleased God. Among all the Divine Days described in the Bible, this is the only day where God did not declare He was pleased.

We are all creations of the same Cosmic Mind, no matter what name you give to the Supreme Being; we are fruit of a Source, and not just a product of random and illogical occurrences. This Source is known to be pure Love and Light. Its manifestations can be diverse, especially if we refer to the varied expressions in different dimensions.

The Primordial Energy that gave origin to the Twin Flames came from a Source called: “The Breath of God”, or “The Breath”. The Bible refers to God giving Life to Man when He “blew into his nostrils the Breath of Life, and so Man became a living Being.”⁷ Ancient texts refer to The Breath as having a sound,

⁷ Genesis, Chapter 2, Verse 7

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

that resembles the vibrational tone “AH”. Many Teachers who have become touched by the energy of The Breath have had the sound embedded in their names.⁸

This Force can also be referred to as the energy originated in the Divine Sacred and Cosmic Heart. It is the synopsis of the pure verve of Creation itself.

The Blessing coming straight from your Twin can reawake the memory of the ancient connection with the Divine Source. It must be understood that the feeling of separation is in reality a product of Illusion. We were never truly separated from the Source. The realm of Duality actually envelops two powers: the power of Love, the Pure Light, and the Power of Fear, the Darkness. These are the two primary forces behind all our actions. The illusion is a byproduct of the Power of Fear.

Another interesting aspect of the Blessing of the Twin Flame is the Dispensation of Grace. Once energetically reconnected, the two parts of the original Monad are able to execute together the expansion of energy of Creation. This integration is also of vital importance when one is pursuing the Re-coding of Spiritual DNA, the original cosmic matrix or blueprint of Human Beings. The Blessing of the Twin Flame opens the door of possibilities and promotes and supports the Process of Ascension.

Contrary to common religious beliefs, the Original Wound does not refer to the wounds from “sin” but from the emotional scar originated when the Twin Flames began to travel through time, space and eternity separately.

⁸ Examples of this are Elijah, Jehovah, and Jeshuah in Christianity; Allah in Islam; Buddha in Buddhism; and Brahma in Hinduism.

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

Steps for Healing the Pain of Separation

“When I stand before thee at the day's end, thou shalt see my scars and know that I had my wounds and also my healing.”

~ Rabindranath Tagore

There are some attitudinal tools that can facilitate the process of healing and integration with the energy of your Twin Flame. They are many ways to practice these attributes. We will offer definitions and general suggestions. The Internal Observer⁹ and your Higher Self will indicate to you the multiplicity of ways to access the information coming straight from the Light of your Soul.

The following initial steps are necessary to bring about the proper internal structure to absorb and maximize the Dispensation of the Blessing of the Twin Flame.

Releasing Guilt from your Life

This is an important step in the liberation of your circuits of compromised energy. It is vital to break free from habitual patterns and behaviors that are limiting and regressive. We may feel guilty for many reasons; when we have mixed feelings about certain situations, unclear intentions, or when we feel incapable to measure up to others' expectations or our own. Self-blame is a very unhelpful attitude.

When you release yourself from the Bonds of Guilt, you are able to purify and integrate the innermost feelings that come with pure intention straight from the heart. In doing so, we become able to develop a deep moral sense of what is right and what is wrong. Learn how to listen to your internal voice. This inner muse is your Higher Self.

⁹ The process of installing the Internal Observer is not covered in this document. For more information, refer to the Humanity Healing Self-Mastery Program.

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

In mastering this step, we are able to move ahead and trust ourselves and others, inciting catalytic experiences that bring release and the inevitable winds of change.

Learning Forgiveness and Letting Go

Forgiveness is both one of the more powerful and more difficult attitudes to practice. Forgiveness can in itself be considered a Healing journey for the Mind and the Spirit. It is a creative act that can empower us to be released from the memories from the past, giving us peace of Spirit. There is no Future in the past. When we chose to not forgive, we also chose to continue to struggle and to resist being completely open to the promise of a new future.

Forgiveness is necessary to release compromised energy so that it can be used for new beginnings. Resentment, vengeance and revenge are toxic feelings that inevitably cause our vital energy field to be limited and stuck. These thoughts literally clutter your life stream of energy. Forgiveness demands courage, but not necessarily strength. When we decide to unshackle ourselves from shadows of past wounds and the bitterness of bad experiences, we become both proficient and self-sufficient energetically. This frees us to reach out and project our Love out into the world.

Forgiveness allows us to work towards the building of our own happiness. Forgiveness is a fundamental step in the Healing of the Illusion of Separation. When referring specifically to the process of Integration of the Twin Energy, this healing attitude is required because though it, we become aware of everything we have created from our past, both in the conscious and unconscious state.

Getting Rid of your Wound File

The expression "Wound File " is a creation of Dr. Carolyn Myss and it defines the repetitive patterns we seem to adopt and practice in our daily lives. It exists because we have a particular way to read and interpret people and situations around us. This unique way is a result of the accumulation of your past experiences and life styles patterns.

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

In accordance of the rules of your own Wound File, you may have a collection of stereotypes and pre-made answers based on your fears and your defense mechanisms. They are not necessarily the best scope of references for your daily living, but they became natural and automatic response.

The existence and the keeping of the Wound File demands a lot of energy to keep the automatic responses going. Breaking this pattern and riding yourself of your Wound File will help release an incredible amount of energy. The new flow will allow you to redirect these new circuits towards more creative projects, the Ascension Process and the recoding of your Backbone DNA.

The Twin Flame Ceremonial Dispensation of Grace

“Prayers go up and Blessings come down”

~ Yiddish Proverb

By definition, Grace is a state in which one is under Divine influence. It can be transmitted by Love, protection and Blessings freely bestowed through Celestial Intercession and assistance.

The Twin Flame Blessing is a conversion of this influence through the mediation of your Tonal Mate. Through this Sanction, your Twin will allow their energy to comingle and be more present in your energy field; as well as permeate your current relationships with the positive influence of the Law of Pure Intention in action. In doing so, the eternal sensation of incompleteness and unwholeness currently present will gradually disappear, as we open ourselves to new opportunities, without restricting our learning process throughout different experiences in life.

In many cultures and traditions, rituals such as the union of couples are seen as a mutual dedicated and Spiritual vow. Those specific rites of passage guard the ceremonial power to bring down to manifestation all the circle of opportunities, of enlightenment and growth for the new couple. Undeniably, the Twin Flame Ceremonial Blessing is an occasion of celebration and joy in the light of any relationship. The Blessing of the Twin Flame is a consecration from your Twin of your current relationship or can add strength to the call by your Soul to find a Soul Mate in this incarnation. Your Twin Flame yearns for your happiness. As there is an equal reaction to every action, your Twin also receives your Blessing and you both will feel the Joy that results from a stronger energetic bond.

In the performance of these Vows, many "qualities "or Virtues are required as prerequisites for the level of spiritual commitment involved.

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

The Four Spiritual Vows

"Your destiny is that of a man, and your vows those of a God."

~ Voltare

There are at least four of those qualities or feelings that should be highlighted in the performance of this Sanctification of Grace: Honesty, Loyalty, Companionship and Commitment.

HONESTY

The Vow of Honesty requires the capability to practice sincerity in all the dimensions of our consciousness and through the "assertiveness" of our thoughts, feelings and actions. In doing so, we develop the ability to be more in contact with our true needs, thus adopting a more constructive position in life. Through the practice of this virtue, one brings real peace to their lives, through the intervention of the Light from the Soul.

LOYALTY

To practice the Vow of Loyalty is to be completely in contact with our true nature. It is the concrete action for our Faith. It is unconditional trust that there is a higher meaning or purpose to everything that happens in life, that nothing is an accident, and that things will work despite of all challenges.

To be Loyal is to apply the disposition to deepen the tender feelings in all our relationships in our present life. It is a profound feeling of reverence and connectiveness with all.

COMPANIONSHIP

The Vow of Companionship brings the gift of sharing and the ability to work with others, especially your partner in a cooperative way. Companionship allows the individual egos to blend for a common purpose, overcoming the unbalanced desire for personal power.

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

COMMITMENT

When we truly decide in our souls to be committed to someone or something, we receive an extra burst of energy that comes from higher planes. The Vow of Commitment set us free of the need to do things merely out of a sense of duty and obligation. Through this new approach we can finally realize that no project can be accomplished without personal giving and dedication.

Obviously, none of the virtues or vows is valid if we do not introduce the Spiritual element that enhances and give light to them all: the power of the Will of Spirit, which is Pure Love.

Humanity Healing Network Twin Flame Blessing

You may hasten your progress on the Path of Unification with the Twin Flame Energy using your prayers, meditations, or dynamic decrees. You may call to the I AM Presence for the inner heart contact with your Twin Flame.

We suggest the following Invocation:

"In the name of the Christ I call to the blessed I AM Presence of our Twin Flames for the sealing of our hearts as one for the victory of our mission to humanity. I invoke the light of the Holy Spirit for the consuming of all negative karma limiting the full expression of our divine identity and the fulfillment of our divine plan."¹⁰

Through the Invocation and the Blessing from your Twin Flame, both you and your Twin can unite even if you live in separate spheres or dimensions. You can unite spiritually on higher planes and direct Light into your own world and the world of your Twin Flame for the balancing of mutual karma.

This inner contact amplifies the Light and achievements you each have and liberates the remarkable power of the polarity of your Love, permitting you to place yourself in a strong position against the conflicts that inevitably come to the door of all who would shield Love as the Ultimate Reality.

As a general rule, Twin flames usually incarnate in different generation, therefore it is possible the existence of an age gap between them.

There is no doubt that some of the symptoms described above are also common to soul mate relationships. What really sets the twin soul union apart from all the rest is the profound degree of completeness experienced and the overwhelming sense of spirituality unique to these partnerships. Two other powerful symptoms of spiritually mature twins is their powerful connection to God and their desire to serve humanity in some meaningful way.

There is also a very sacred sense of intimacy and feeling of divinely inspired wholeness that one finds within a twin soul relationship. It's not by accident nor is it without purpose. Rather, it is magnificent and loving part of our Creator's plan for us. There is no doubt that the intensity behind the twin union is more than enough to jump start the journey that will lead us back to our Source, which will happen someday.
