

THE ETHOS SOLARIS

“Nobless oblige”

Cantata Celebrating the Eighth Day of Creation and the Promise of the Ninth

By Ray Bradbury

*“A Voice spoke in the dark,
And there was Light.
And summoned up by Light upon the Earth
The creatures swam
And moved unto the land
And lived in garden wilderness;
All this, we know.
The Seven Days are written in our blood
With hand of Fire.
And now we children of the seven eternal days
Inheritors of this, the Eighth Day of God,
The long Eighth Day of Man,
Stand upright in a weather of Time
In downfell snow
And hear the birds of morning
And much want wings*

*And look upon the beckonings of stars,
And need their fire.”*

The Ethos Solaris is the foundation on which we, as Spiritual beings, live our lives. As such, it is the starting point of the Path of Ascension and the framework, or loom, on which the Strands of the Stellar Codes™ are woven. Paradoxically, as one grows spiritually, one naturally begins to incorporate the Ethos Solaris into one's life even without knowledge of its name or tenets.

We are all Children of the same Universe. We are all solar beings, God's children made of Light. We inherited the Divine Blueprint.

As beings that are intimately related to the Light, we all have the Sun as our major symbol to represent life, enlightenment and redemption. We tend to mostly regulate our activities based on the hours of the day and dedicate the night hours to rest. During these hours, our spiritual essence has the opportunity to reach other dimensions and be free from the pressures of the dualistic reality. As we grow spiritually into the Light Path as individuals, we manifest the different facets of this cosmic interaction with the Divine and the limitlessness of ALL THAT IS. There are three phases that are necessary to embody this concept:

- 1. The Dawning of the Lightmaker
- 2. The Emergence of the Lightwarrior
- 3. The Coronation of the Lightweaver

These three aspects are the three main Cords that help the Seeker to strengthen the weaving of Antahkarana. They are represented by the trine flame of the Master's Heart. Once started on the Solaris Activation Path, the Seeker will be able to reactivate all the light codes of the original design, transforming their own heart into the Holy Grail: to become a conduit for compassion and a receptacle of Divine Grace and Dispensations.

Our existences are not solely based and subjective by our own Sun, our Solar Logos. We also receive the influence from other Galactic Suns: Luminaries that are in close relationship with our Solar Logos. It is safe to say then that we are beings blessed with a Solaris nature.

The Ancient Wisdom tells us that our Sun, our Solar Logos, is part of a corporate body of six other suns, which constitute a massive cosmic entity that undergoes an evolution upon its own level, just as every other created Being. These seven Suns, of which ours is one, are continually giving off forces which are the product of their ongoing evolution. This is the "Solaris Effect". It is also described in ancient traditions that these forces are absorbed through the seven stars of the constellation Ursa Major, the Great Bear, the Pleiadians and their emanations are called the Seven Rays.

Our Solar Logos, named Helios in Greek, acts as a main "doorway" for the seven ray energies to dispense through, and from there, the seven forces are drawn toward the "seven sacred planets"¹ of our solar system, which act as "vehicles" for the ray energies. The Light Rays have an affinity with each of the seven planets, which are, of course, representatives of the Seven Rishis of the Great Bear. Certain Light Rays get sent out through particular constellations with which they have an affinity and, once modified, stream toward our Solar Logos, which acts as a prism. The rays are further decomposed into smaller light particles in order to be absorbed by all the living Beings that are sharing this journey of existence with us at this moment on the planet Earth.

In order to be in perfect alignment with the gathering of the multiple Solar energies within Solaris Effect in every human Soul, there are a set of recommendations in which the Seeker should strive to comply: the "Ethos Solaris".

¹ Which are also related to the seven main chakras of the human body: "As Above as Below".

The passage along the Path of the Ethos Solaris is a journey in the awakening of our diverse multidimensional nature and during this voyage one may learn how to operate the different realms and frequencies of energetic vibrations.

The Ethos Solaris is an inventory of lifestyle recommendations or "Modus Vivendi".

The vibrational signature of the Solaris Effect is defined by the frequencies related to the number 8. The main explanation for this vibratory signature is because 8 is the first product of a primitive rhythm: Eight is the first cubic number, the cube of two or $2 \times 2 \times 2$. Expanding on this, three is the symbol of the first plane figure and four is the first square. So here, in the first cube, we see something of transcendent perfection indicated, something in which the length and breadth and height of which are equal. The significance of the cube is seen in the fact that the "Holy of Holies," both in the Tabernacle and in the Temple, they were cubes.² The eight is a mystical number that condenses the knowledge of the incarnation of the spirit with matter, but at the same time delineates the qualities of the Spirit that fully understands the cycles of creation and spiritual laws.

Ethos forms the root of *ethikos*³ (ἠθικός), meaning "moral, showing moral character". To the Greeks ancient and modern, the meaning is simply "the state of being", the inner source, the Soul, the mind, and the original essence, that shapes and forms a person or *anima*⁴. In other words, the Ethos

Solaris is a code of ethics for the Human Soul that yearns to accomplish its studies on Earth school and effectively become a galactic citizen. Inside of any code of conduct there are three levels of experiences and concordance. These are the three categories of ethos.

- Phronesis - practical skills & wisdom
- Arete - virtue, goodness
- Eunoia - goodwill towards the audience

The 8 is the key of the periodic regeneration. If we understand 7 being the vibrational completion of a cycle of creation, the number 8 would represent the initial unit in another cycle of creation in another analogical dimension. It is $7 + 1$. Consequently, it is the number especially associated with Resurrection and Regeneration, and the beginning of a new phase in life.

Many Cultures revere the vibration pattern of the number eight as part of their rites of passage and rituals of initiation.

The rite of passage of circumcision was to be carried out on the eighth day⁵, because it was the foreshadowing of the true circumcision of the heart, that which was to be "made without hands," even "the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ"⁶. This is connected with the new creation.

In Druid metaphysics, the Initiate would pass through eight different altered state of consciousness inside of the Gwenwed circle⁷, or experience of the eight wavelengths of light energy: Infra-red, red, Orange, Yellow, Green, Blue, Violet, and Ultra-violet⁸. The number 8 represents the vibration of the Soul that sheds the demands of the personality and dresses itself with the Universality of the Cosmos.

It is known that the prophet Elisha performed eight miracles, exposing the divinely inspired characteristic of his life purpose.

7. The same, 2 Kings 1:12.
8. Dividing the Jordan, 2 Kings 2:8.

In Christianity, the Eight Beatitudes⁹, are blessings from Jesus recorded in the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew and the Sermon on the Plain in Luke. One of the first contemplations on the Beatitudes came from St. Gregory of Nyssa, a mystic who lived in Cappadocia in Asia Minor around 380 AD. He described the Beatitudes this way:

⁹ from Latin beatus, meaning "blessed"

"Beatitude is a possession of all things held to be good, from which nothing is absent that a good desire, may want. Perhaps the meaning of beatitude may become clearer to us if it is compared with its opposite. Now the opposite of beatitude is misery. Misery means being afflicted unwillingly with painful sufferings."

St. Augustine called the Beatitudes the ideal for every Christian life.

The same inventory of recommendations can be found on the Dead Sea scrolls¹⁰, as they were carried on by the Essenes and they pre-date the teaching of the Christ.

¹⁰ The words of the Beatitudes are attributed to those of the Teacher of Righteousness, the founder of the Essenes who they recognized as their long-awaited Messiah. Their content can also be found in the Credo of the Essenes.

The texts found among the Dead Sea Scrolls show how the ancient Essene teachings were the origin of many of Christ's teachings. Paul and other New Testament writers often used the very phrases, sometimes word for word, of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

The Sermon on the Mount was taken directly from Dead Sea Scrolls texts. Yet, only an Essene initiate would have had access or knowledge of these teachings. These scrolls would have been strictly limited to only members of the Holy Order; those who have been mortally sworn to secrecy. (Give not that which is holy unto the dogs. Give not pearls unto swine, lest they turn and rend you. Matt 7:6)

The Eight Beatitudes of Christ¹¹ represent eight upward steps toward attaining the ¹¹ Scholars are now recognizing the Dead Sea scrolls as the prototype for Christ's Beatitudes. Scroll 4Qbeat reads:

[Blessed is] ...with a pure heart and does not slander with his tongue.

*Blessed are those who hold to her [Wisdom's]
precepts
And do not hold to the ways of iniquity.*

*Blessed are those who rejoice in her,
And do not burst forth in ways of folly.*

*Blessed are those who seek her with pure hands,
And do not pursue her with a treacherous heart.*

*Blessed is the man who has attained Wisdom,
And walks in the Law of the Most High.*

*He directs his heart towards her ways,
And restrains himself by her corrections,
And always takes delight in her chastisements.*

*He does not forsake her when he sees distress,
Nor abandon her in time of strain.*

*He will not forget her [on the day of] fear,
And will not despise [her] when his soul is afflicted.*

*For always he will meditate on her,
And in his distress he will consider [her]
Not to serve the foolish, But to serve the spiritual;
To honour those worthy of honour,— This is the greatest blessing.*

*To dwell in a spot that befits one's condition, To think of the effect of one's deeds,
To guide the behaviour aright,— This is the
greatest blessing.*

*Much insight and education, Self-control and pleasant speech,
And whatever word be well spoken,— This is the
greatest blessing.*

The Horizontal position of the number eight (8 ∞) gives us the symbol of the manifested Universe. In Kabbalah, the 8th Sphere, or sephira, is HOD, the Splendor, the Glory and the Honor. In Hebrew the number eight is Sh'moneh, from the root Shah'meyn, which means "to super-abound"; as a participle it means "one who abounds in strength.". In Tarot, the number 8 is represented by the Justice, or Karmic

To follow a peaceful calling,— This is the greatest blessing.

help to kindred,
Deeds which cannot be blamed, These are the

strong drink,
Not to be weary in well-doing, These are the
greatest blessing.*

The hearing of the Law at due seasons,— This is the greatest blessing.*

*To be long suffering and meek, To associate with the tranquil,
Religious talk at due seasons,— This is the
greatest blessing.*

noble truths,
The attainment of Nirvana, This is the greatest blessing.*

adjustments in some Tarots: the alignment and understanding of the Divine laws and the promise to follow the path of balance and moderation.

In the same way, the Ethos Solaris is weaved as a lattice of eight ethical, spiritual and intellectual attitudes that will perfect the individual, in their varied levels of existence facilitating the transcendence of the earthly personality to the true Divine essence, which is our birthmark. The Ethos Solaris is a Dharmic¹³ Path, and the ones that voluntarily decide to travel this Light Path must agree to thrive for the externalization of the eight ideal virtues.

The best representation, and most concise codex, of these eight ideal virtues is what the Buddhists describe as the Eight-fold Path, which they believe is a way of being released from the wheels of Samsara, according to the prescriptions given by Siddhartha Gautama. It is a practical guideline to ethical and mental progress with the goal of freeing the individual from attachments and delusions. It ultimately leads to the understanding of the truth about all things. The eight aspects of the path are not to be understood as a sequence of single steps, instead they are highly interdependent principles that have to be seen in relationship with each other.

The Eight-fold Path is:

1. Right View
2. Right Intention

¹³ Dharma means laws or truth, especially the Universal Laws through which the Buddha attained Enlightenment.

3. Right Speech
4. Right Action
5. Right Livelihood
6. Right Effort
7. Right Mindfulness
8. Right Concentration

The Ethos Solaris can be compared as a Lotus with eight petals and the reward for following this Path is that it allows the Soul to find the Jewel in the Heart of the Lotus. The lotus flower, or padmine, grows in muddy water, but in spite of growing in dust and filth, the flower rises above it and never has even a drop of mud on it.

"One who performs his duty without attachment, surrendering the results unto the Supreme Lord, is unaffected by sinful action, as the lotus leaf is untouched by water."

~Bhagavad Gita 5.10
