STELLAR CODE™ - ALCYONE

THE CENTRAL HEART OF THE UNIVERSE

“Though my soul may set in darkness, It will rise in perfect light, I have loved the stars too fondly To be fearful of the night”

~Sarah Williams

“There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than are dreamt of in your philosophy.”

~Hamlet Act 1, scene 5, 159–167

MYTHOLOGICAL AND ARCHETYPICAL BACKGROUND

THE SEVEN MYSTIC DAUGHTERS OF ATLAS

To understand the underlying importance and relevance of this Stellar Code, we start with the Bible in connecting with the present period of shifting planetary fluctuations. These changes are shown to be extremely relevant when we put the pieces together and come to the conclusion that there is a connection between us and the movement of the fixed stars and planets in the sky.

“Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?”

~Job 38:31

The influence of the Pleiades¹ is extremely important and visible, not only because it was registered on the Bible, but because the effect they together hold can vary according to the angles of light and the variations of their electromagnetism.

According to Greek mythology, the Pleiades were the seven daughters of the titan Atlas and the mortal Pleione that later were transformed into Star beings by the chief of gods, Zeus. They are also known as the Atlantides, after their father.

ATLAS AND THE ATLANTEANS

Atlantis was the domain of Poseidon, the god of the sea. When Poseidon fell in love with a mortal woman, Cleito, he created a dwelling on the top of a hill near the middle of an island and surrounded the dwelling with rings of water and land to protect her. Cleito gave birth to five sets of twin boys who became the first rulers of Atlantis. The island was divided among the brothers with the eldest, Atlas, the first King of Atlantis, being given control over the central hill and surrounding areas.

At the top of the central hill, a temple was built to honor Poseidon, which housed a giant gold statue of Poseidon riding a chariot pulled by winged horses. It was here that the rulers of Atlantis would come to discuss laws, pass judgments and pay tribute to Poseidon. To facilitate travel and trade, a water canal was cut through of the rings of land and water running south for 5 1/2 miles (approximately 9 km) to the sea.

THE MYTH OF ATLAS

In Greek mythology, Atlas was the primordial Titan who supported the heavens on his shoulders.

Atlas was one of the second generation of Titans. He personified the quality of endurance². In one tradition, Atlas led the Titans in a rebellion against Zeus and was condemned to bear the heavens upon his shoulders. In another, he was said to have been appointed Guardian of the Pillars which held earth and sky asunder. He was also the god who instructed mankind in the art of astronomy, a tool which was used by sailors in navigation and farmers in measuring the seasons. These roles were often combined and Atlas becomes the god who turns the heaven on their axis, causing the stars to revolve.

² atlaô is the Greek word for endurance

The Titan Atlas was the king of Atlantis in Greek mythology; and one of the sons of Poseidon, the god of the sea, who was appointed by his father as supreme sovereign of Atlantis. Atlas is the elder brother of the ten sons of Poseidon and Cleito, a girl living in the mythical island of Atlantis, domain of the god of the sea. In various texts it is said that different Titans and the Titanesses are assigned each of the seven planetary powers.

Poseidon cut Atlantis into ten parts, one for each of his sons. Atlas, who received the central mountain, is also appointed by Poseidon as the supreme sovereign of the island. Legend tells us that he was a good king and made his territory prosperous and among the richest in the world.

Others go still further in the description of Atlas and represent Atlas as a powerful king, who possessed great knowledge of the courses of the stars and who was the first who taught men that the heavens had the form of the inside of a globe. Hence, the expression that heaven rested on his shoulders was regarded as a mere figurative mode of speaking.

In Sanskrit, “Atl” means “to support or uphold” as Atlas was said to hold the world on his shoulders.

Alonso de Molina's 16th century dictionary of the Nahuatl language, "Vocabulario En Lengua Mexicana y Castellana" says that: "The words Atlas and Atlantic have no satisfactory etymology in any language known to Europe. They are not Greek, and cannot be referred to any known language of the Old World. But in the Nahuatl language we find immediately the radical 'a', 'atl', which signifies water, war, and the top of the head."

The Mahabharata talks as well about the seven great islands in the western seas, very similar to the Atlantean tradition.

In Atlantean mythology, Atlas holds up the world or the heavens and in our body the Atlas vertebrae grips up our head/mind. In Atlantean mythology, Atlas has 7 daughters who spend all their time guarding and dancing around the Tree of Life; in your body you have 7 energy centers, or chakras, dancing around your spine.

The ceremonial column (Oak Tree, Tree of Life, Staff of Moses etc.) is the human spine with 33 vertebrae. The actual medical term for the 33rd vertebrae which holds up the skull is "Atlas", the same name as the King of Atlantis.

Plato described Atlantis as being shaped like three concentric circles of land separated by concentric circles of water. In other words, the shape of Atlantis was in the shape of a bull's-eye.

The Atlas vertebra holds up your head, your "third eye" is at the center of your brain, and the center of Atlantis is a "bull's-eye." In fact, your skull, which Atlas holds up, is shaped just like Atlantis is described. At the center point is your third eye.

The Temple of Poseidon, between your "temples", is your brain then Atlantis' bull's-eye is your Third Eye/pineal gland which literally "roams free in the courtyard of the temple" because it is surrounded by fluid.

The Titan condemned by Zeus to support the heavens upon his shoulders: Atlas, the person who supports a great burden. Here we also have the seven daughters of the one who is supporting the very life force of the earth. The seven daughters also represent the seven islands and colonies of Atlantes and Lemuria. They are the seven spirits, seven nerve centers, seven seals, seven chakras within each person that are connected to the support of the cosmic life force.

“Then I saw a scroll in the right hand of the one who was sitting on the throne. There was writing on the inside and the outside of the scroll, and it was sealed with seven seals”

~Revelation 5:1

THE SEVEN UP ABOVE AND WITHIN YOU

THE SYMBOLISM OF THE NUMBER SEVEN

“Seven is the number of realization of the space time”

~Abellio

The number seven is known to be the number of creation, representing the live relationship between the human and the divine.

The essential process of creation consists in the polarization of Light, and its refraction through a prismatic perspective, turning the original Light into different frequencies of rays, each with a different wavelength, including the seven visible colored rays. The seven emanations are seen by tradition as the Seven Rays of Creation. These seven luminous vibrations correspond also to the seven sound vibration tones that originated the Creation:

“In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God (...) through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.”

~John 1, 3

The Original Vibration then multiplied and differentiated itself in form. These seven different vibratory planes of creation exist simultaneously and can be considered as successive emanations of the uncreated Source. In other words, the seven dimensions of our immediate Universe, from which our seven chakras are the psychophysical manifestation.

The Chakras, referred to as “vortexes of power”, are the vehicles of manifestation of the pure cosmic energy; and, in its turn, designating seven different levels of consciousness.

These seven stages of consciousness were symbolized in the Atlantean tradition, as transmitted by the Egyptians, by the seven veils of the Goddess Isis. In ancient times, sacred dancers performed the ritual of the seven veils as to reveal gradually the world beyond the immediate reality.

Tradition also speaks about the seven virtues and the seven deadly sins.

Celestially, we are told that there is an influence, and that influence is connected to the seven “up there” and the seven “on your back”.

In ancient times the Pleiades were called “The Guardians of the Sky” and they had the mystical task to have the account of Time Keeping. The Egyptian texts allude to Pleiades' archaic significance as Krittitas, judges of men, assigning them also to seven planetary spheres as the seven Hathors.

The Pleiadean star system was the locus of our cosmic inheritance and the source of the mystical wisdom known by the High Initiates of the Mystery Schools of Isis.

THE PLEIADES

The influence of the Pleiades is the most heightened in May and November every year. This is when Pleiadean consciousness is most accessible to humanity.

Some of the Oriental Scriptures affirm that our connection to the Pleiades is made through sound and vibration. In Alice Bailey, it is suggested that perhaps the Pleiades are the source of the atomic life of our Logos, the active intelligent aspect. The Pleiades are believed to be the home of the many Spiritual schools of learning whose influence awakens and transforms the rational mind into becoming a clear vehicle of spirit.

"Three great waves of energy sweep cyclically through [659] the entire solar system from...the Seven Sisters, the Pleiades, from that one in particular who is occultly termed "the wife" of the planetary Logos whose scheme will eventually receive the seeds of life from our planet which is not considered a sacred planet"...

~Master D.K, through the work of Alice Bailey

The cluster consists of seven small stars: Electra, Celaeno, Taygeta, Maia, Merope, Asterope and Alcyone, with Alcyone being the central star and known as the “star of the weeping sisters”.

THE LUMINOUS LIGHT OF ALCYONE

Alcyone or Halcyon, is also referred to as a “symbolic or mystical bird, early identified with the Kingfisher”, the ornithological Alcedo or Ceryle. Through the myth of the Halcyon Days, that “element and temperate time, the nurse of the beautiful Halcyon, preannounced a period of rest and rebirth, in the middle of the winter days when birds of calm sit brooding on the charmed wave”, some authors write that the mythical story originally referred to some astronomical phenomenon, probably in connection with the Pleiades, of which constellation Alcyone is the principal star.

In what appears to have been the most vigorous period of ancient astronomy, no later than 2000 B.C.E., but continuing long afterwards to influence legend and nomenclature, the sun rose at the vernal equinox, in conjunction with the Pleiades, in the sign of Taurus.

The Pleiades are in many languages associated with bird-names and we are inclined to take the bird on the bull's back in coins of Eretria, Dicaea, and Thurii for the associated constellation of the Pleiades.

Suidas definitely asserts that the Pleiades were called Alkuones. At the winter solstice, in the same ancient epoch, the Pleiades culminated at nightfall in mid-heaven.

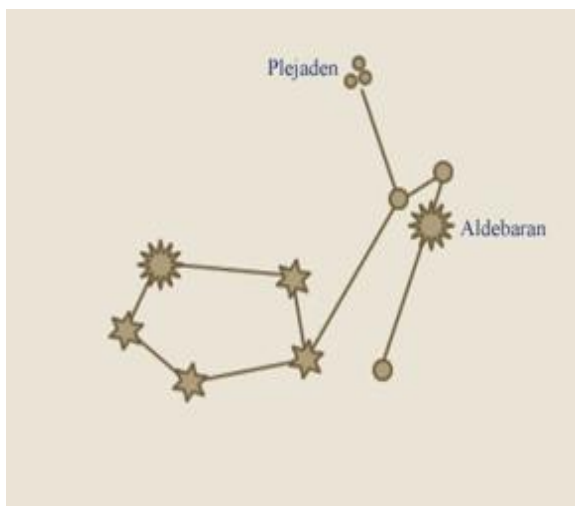

This culmination, between three and four months after the heliacal rising of the Pleiades in autumn, was, we conjecture, symbolized as the nesting of the Halcyon.

Owing to the antiquity and corruption of the legend, it is impossible to hazard more than a conjecture; but that the phenomenon was obviously in some form an astronomic one.

*... The great and burning star, immeasurably old, immeasurably far,
surging forth its silver flame through eternity, Alcyone!*

~Archibald Lampman's Alcyone

Alcyone is the Great Group “point at center” for the One Cosmic Hierarchy and the center of the sweep of the circle of the Seven Cosmic Initiates, the Lords of the Seven Great Creative Hierarchies.

Alcyone is a stellar being who vibrates her cosmic melody into the frequencies of the Constellation of the Pleiades. Called "The Central One", Alcyone is the central and also the largest star of the Pleiades, or Seven Sisters; the seven stars which are situated on the shoulder blade of the constellation of Taurus, the Bull.

Alcyone is often seen as representing the whole group that is all situated within one degree from each other.

Alcyone was called Al Wasat, the Central One, by the Arabs. In Babylonia, it determined to be the 4th ecliptic constellation, Temennu, the Foundation Stone. For the Hindus, it was Amba, The Mother of the Hindus. Its present name Alcyone was derived from the Greek word signifying Peace. These are all highly reverential titles, in multiple cultures, for this one star.

Alcyone, is evidently of Oriental origin, having the Arabic and old Hebrew article Al, prefixed to its root Cyon, center. Cyon sound like Sion/Zion: the heavenly city of God. Alcyone aptitudes are well mentioned on the Psalm 87 and in the Book of Revelations, chapter 21: 23, 25 and 27.

“The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp (...) Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb’s book of life.”

~ Revelations 21

In Greek its name Alcyone or Halcyone means “the queen who wards off evil storms”.

In Greek mythology, Alcyone was a queen, daughter of King Aeolus, the guardian of the winds, who in grief over the death of her husband Ceyx, threw herself into the sea and was changed into a halcyon through the compassionate action of the God Zeus: a bird was identified with the kingfisher and believed to have had the power to calm the wind and the waves at the time of the winter solstice when it nested on the sea. Halcyon means tranquil and free from disturbance or care; prosperous; golden: as in "halcyon days".

“Alcyone the Star of the Individual - governing humanity.”

~Master D.K.

Many ancient traditions affirm that Alcyone is the Central Spiritual Sun, the “Mother Sun” that emits creative Light, that which births great teachers of Light into the world. It was believed to be the center of the Universe around which our own solar system also revolves.

It is the supreme symbol of Synthesis, consummated Light expression and the Cosmic Whole. All seven of the Cosmic Paths eventually lead via the Seven Centers to the central Hub of the Great Wheel and all seven strands of the Great intra-cosmic Antahkarana emanate from it.

The Stellar Being of Alcyone bestows Pleiades intuitional intelligence of consciousness and knowledge of a high level to seekers, helping them to grow to be consciously aware of Divine Knowledge and Wisdom. This is why their etheric, astral and mental bodies must be purified and perfectly attuned before being able to integrate with that spiritual realm. Through these attunements, all the 12 doors that open the Sacred Temple of the Most High would be perceived by the seeker.

In Alcyone resides the Great Temple of the Central Sun.

“And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. It shone with the glory of God, and its brilliance was like that of a very precious jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal. It had a great, high wall

with twelve gates and with twelve angels at the gates.”

~Revelations 21:10-12

Alcyone, as science can perceive, would seem to be the "midnight throne" in which the whole system of gravitation has a central seat, and from which the Almighty governs his universe.

THE RIVER OF TAURUS

When the sun has reached the constellation of Taurus, it has passed over an area that the ancients referred to as “the sea”, the region from Capricorn to the region containing Aries. It was referred to as the sea due to the high concentration of constellations identified as sea creatures within it, Aries being identified as a golden flying ram that flew over the sea.

Apart from being a bull, Taurus contains a very bright and red star, Aldebaran. Some stories of Greek mythology associated the constellation with the tame white bull, in some versions Zeus in disguise, which seduced Europa and took her to Crete; whereas others associate it with the white bull that fathered the Minotaur.

The Cretan Bull which fathered the Minotaur was originally calm and sent from Poseidon, but the king, Minos, to whom it was sent to fell out of favor with Poseidon, and so in some versions of the story, Poseidon made the bull angry.

The myth of Poseidon sending the bull, which seduced Minos' wife, may simply be an earlier version of the myth of Zeus seducing Europa, a legendary Phoenician princess. In earlier Mycenaean times, Poseidon had significantly more importance than Zeus. The change of gods was due to the replacement of the Mycenaean culture and religion, with the later one favoring Zeus. Poseidon and Zeus, which have the same etymological origin, Poseidon deriving from Posei-Deion which means Lord God, and Zeus deriving from Deus which also means God, may be the result of the parallel evolution of the same original god in separate cultures: one, Poseidon becoming associated more with the sea, due to a change in the main source of trade, and thus eventually becoming noticeably different.

THE STAR OF ILLUMINATION- ALDEBARAN

Approximately 5,000 years ago, the rising of Aldebaran marked the vernal equinox and was the beginning of the Babylonian New Year. This brilliant star has been used for centuries in navigation and is known by many civilizations to be connected with the spirits of rain and the fertility of the Earth.

Astrologically, Aldebaran has always been regarded as a fortunate star, portending riches and honor for those under its patronage. It is one of the four “Royal Stars” of the Persians from around 3000 BCE.

Aldebaran is the red Eye of the Bull in the constellation Taurus. It is also known as Buddha's Star, the Star of Illumination, and God's Eye.

Aldebaran is called the Eye of Revelation. Life is filled with Metaphors and Revelations. The evolutionary process is essentially a journey into consciousness awareness through Revelation. As we evolve, we perceive more than we ever knew was existent or perceptible, yet we only perceive what has always been there.

Aldebaran, the Star of Illumination, is directly across the zodiac from Antares. In the only exact opposition of two major stars; Aldebaran is located at 9 degrees of the sign Gemini, with Antares at 9 degrees of the sign Sagittarius.

In stellar myth, Aldebaran is Vision Holder for the Starseed Mission on Earth, defining what Emissaries of Light can best accomplish to serve Humanity through evolutionary transition.

Aldebaran holds the vision for global leaders and world servers, inspiring the administrative planning of world affairs, especially for physical logistics and a global infrastructure designed to support humanity through evolutionary unfoldment and global change. Prominent alignments with the Aldebaran / Antares axis can express into the political and global arena.

In the sign of Taurus, when desire is transmuted into aspiration, darkness gives place to light and illumination. The eye of the bull, the spiritual third eye or the “single eye” of the New Testament, is opened.

“If thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light”, said the Christ (Matthew 6:22).

This single eye takes the place of the two eyes of the personal self. As the attention of humanity becomes focused upon spiritual attainment, we tread the Way of Revelation.

Life is filled with revelation. The entire evolutionary process is essentially nothing but a growing revelation. The two concepts Evolution and Revelation go together. As we evolve, we perceive more than we ever knew was existent or perceptible, yet we only perceive what has always been there. The Way of Revelation is through the discovering and discarding of our own limitations.

Just as Antares is linked to the Archangel Raphael, so too is Aldebaran linked to the Archangel Michael. The energy of both of these Royal Stars brings about the balance between two powerful forces of creation, the Angels of the host of Lord Michael and the Angels of hosts of Lord Raphael.

The Stellar Code™ of Aldebaran brings the discernment and the right intention of actions under the enlighten manifestation of the Souls' Light.

The connection between these stellar codes unveils an incredible universe of frequencies and information that largely increases the potential of assimilation of light, information and realization. In itself it is another step of initiation that enhance our perception and diminishes the grip of tri-dimensional reality in our daily lives.

THE JOURNEY AND LABOR OF HERCULES

To accomplish his tenth labor, Hercules had to journey to the end of the world.

Eurystheus ordered the hero to bring him the cattle of the monster Geryon³. Geryon was the son of Chrysaor and Callirrhoe. Chrysaor had sprung from the body of the Gorgon Medusa after Perseus beheaded her, and Callirrhoe was the daughter of two Titans, Oceanus and Tethys. With such a distinguished lineage, it is no surprise that Geryon himself was quite unique. It seems that Geryon had three heads and three sets of legs all joined at the waist.

Geryon was often described as a monster with human faces. According to Hesiod, Geryon had one body and three heads, whereas the tradition followed by Aeschylus gave him three bodies. A lost description by ³ In Greek mythology, Geryon, the son of Chrysaor and Callirrhoe and grandson of Medusa, was a fearsome giant who dwelt on the island Erytheia of the mythic Hesperides in the far west of the Mediterranean.

Stesichoros said that he has six hands and six feet and is winged; there are some mid-sixth century Chalcedon vases portraying Geryon as winged. Some accounts state that he had six legs as well while others state that the three bodies were joined to one pair of legs. Apart from these unusual physical features, his appearance was that of a warrior. He owned a two-headed hound named Orthrus, which was the brother of Cerberus the Hound of Hades, and a herd of magnificent red cattle that were guarded by Orthrus, and a herder Eurytion, son of Erytheia.

Heracles was required to travel to Erytheia, in order to obtain the Cattle of Geryon as his tenth labor. On the way there, he crossed the Libyan Desert and became so frustrated at the heat that he shot an arrow at Helios; the Sun. Helios, in admiration of his courage, gave Heracles the giant golden cup which he used to sail across the sea from west to east each night. Heracles used it to reach Erytheia. Such a magical conveyance undercuts any literal geography for Erytheia, the “red island of the sunset”.

No sooner had he landed when Heracles reached Erytheia than he was confronted by the two-headed dog, Orthrus. With one huge blow from his olive-wood club, Heracles killed the watchdog. Eurytion the herdsman came to assist Orthrus, but Heracles dealt with him the same way.

On hearing the commotion, Geryon sprang into action, carrying three shields, three spears, and wearing three helmets. He confronted Heracles at the River Anthemus but fell victim to an arrow that had been dipped in the venomous blood of the Lernaean Hydra. It was shot so forcefully by Heracles that it pierced Geryon's forehead and bent his neck over to one side.

Heracles then had to herd the cattle back to Eurystheus. The stealing of the cattle was not such a difficult task as compared to the trouble Hercules had bringing the herd back to Greece.

THE OUTER MANIFESTATION OF ALCYONE

“And a great sign appeared in heaven: A woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.”

~Book of Revelation 12:1

THE TWELVE GATES OF ALCYONE

THE STELLIUM

By definition, a stellium is an astrological term to define an aggregation of stars, or planets, around the same cosmic quadrant, forming a cluster of three or more, guarding a distance from zero to five degrees apart. The close location of these stars, or planets, aside each other gives a birth theme, or an event theme, that has a very special significance, thus becoming a dominant characteristic due to the emphasis of their vibration. In general, it enriches the personality and provides the spectrum of vibrations that will be express by the being or externalized by the event portrayed by the Stellium. The starry crown of twelve stars represents the perfection and the “completude of the number 12”.

“It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, and with twelve angels at the gates.”

~Revelation 21:12

The number twelve holds high esoteric and mystical significance: all the big spiritual leaders had 12 disciples; 12 were the tribes of Israel, 12 were the sons of Jacob and 12 were also the principals of Isamael. The Greeks worshiped 12 gods and 12 the labors of Hercules. The God Osiris in Egypt had 12 followers, Quetzalcoatl had also 12 devotees, 12 are the God pertaining to the Bramanin

Zodiac in India. King Arthur had 12 Knights and 12 were the divisions of the Temple of the great King Solomon. In any case twelve is the numeric representation of the completion of a cycle, and the same time announces the entrance passage for a new state, or level of reality. Twelve is a number of perfection.

“The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb”.

~Revelation 21:14

In the vision from Revelation, chapter 12, the Apostle John, at this time a prisoner of Rome and is in exile on the Island of Patmos, saw “the woman of destiny”. She is the same woman we see showcased throughout Holy Scripture. In Genesis, we saw her as the woman whose Seed crushes the head of the serpent. Now, the long saga has finally come to its grand conclusion and we see the woman of destiny shining forth in a blaze of glory. The 12 stars around her head are a symbol from the Trancendent Order of the Twelve Stars of Mary.

The Twelve Star Devotion is of baroque origin and expression. It originated with the special attention attributed to Mary as Regina Mundi or Imperatrix Mundi in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Lady Mary is believed to personally bless and deliver every single soul that volunteer to a round of incarnation on planet Earth. She is also assigned with the undertaking of being over the recently disembodied souls leaving the Earth and assisting them to not be lost in the many manifested worlds of the fourth dimension. Tradition says that she is the full embodiment of the Mediatrix of All Graces, the mediator of souls, and that she holds the role of a bodhisattva being with pure wisdom and that her twelve stars are the representation of her fully developed system of twelve chakras. Through the Apocrypha Gospel of Pseudo-Matthew and many early Christian writings of the Gospel of the Nativity of Mary, we are told that Mary was taken to a temple on a mountain at around the age of three in accomplishment of a sacred vow. It was ordained that Mary would be left at the temple to live a cloistered and holy life and be educated to the highest Order. The temple in which she stayed is thought to be the one on Mount Carmel as the Essenes were the only sect to initiate women.

In this particular devotion, the number twelve, the twelve stars, are seen as reference to the graces, privileges and charismas received by Our Lady from God. Mary, the Queen of Heaven, a typical baroque title, is crowned with her perfections, one star for each one of the perfections, attribute, abilities or prerogatives, which are points of power that express openly the many aspects of the perfected human divinity.

THE SACRED ORDER OF LADY MARY

Lady Mary being the Mediatrix of the diverse planes of existence operating on the planet right now, embraces the signature vibration of the Divine Feminine and its frequencies. For those that manifest the high desire to enter and assist in this sacred Order must observe certain prerequisites. This is not a simple vow, it is a soul promise. This is an open sacred order to all of those that have received the grace of the spiritual gifts and have acquired a mature heart and freely wants to devote oneself to service to others through the spiritual mentorship of Mary and her Angelic Hosts.

As a new cycle is emerging on Planet Earth, with it comes a Fiat Lux dispensation from the Eternal to unite the Kingdoms of Angels, Humanity and the Elementals in conscious cooperation in an endeavor to fulfill the Divine Plan in all its frequencies and levels of existence.

OBSERVED ATTITUDES FOR KNIGHTS AND LADIES IN THE ORDER OF MARY

The members of this order must have a strong connection with their higher hearts and practice compassion as a way of living.

The Knights and Ladies are guided and trained by our Lady, and with purity of intentions, plea to be available to the opportunities that might be presented during their lifetimes. Her spiritual helpers usually wear magenta colors with regal details in gold.

They must live for goodness, love and light alone. Pride, falsehood, greed, malicious behaviors, jealousy, tyranny and mindlessness, lack of hope or perseverance are not to be objects of one's mind once they dedicate themselves to vibrate within this circle of Light. The only way to actually experience this personal involvement and relationship is through love --but this love must be clothed in great inner peace and tranquility.

This is a holy order of the heart center of the Universe, which vibrates only the pure emanation of the Shekinah's energy, the Holy Spirit.

To be an assistant to the Holy Order of Mary, one has to believe that he/she has the conditions to go back and be part again of God's heavenly hosts.

It is not an easy assignment, nor is this a role playing game. It will demand the development of many Gifts of Spirit, such as fortitude, resilience, purity of heart and spirit and integrity.

This is an initiation in the Cord of the Lightweaver because it connects all the functions developed and awakened during all the Stellar Codes.

To recognize another Human being that is also part of this holy order, just repeat their name internally three times, concentrate on the crown of 12 stars, and you will have the answer. The same way, you may invoke the power of the Holy Mother to help deal, embrace and heal a situation or a person, when you feel in your heart that all your human abilities are exhausted.

THE INVOCATION FOR THE TWELVE JEWELS OF THE CROWN

Beloved presence of God,

I humbly ask, pray and dream awake before your mighty presence,

The manifestation of the 12 choirs of Christic Angels to assist, guard and guide my body, soul and spirit in my journeys through self-realization;

I invoke the Pure Cosmic Light of the great central Sun of Alcyone, to manifest its rays into my being, in all dimensions, frequencies, vibrations that my multidimensional being may exist.

*I invoke The Golden Energy of Christ-consciousness to be permanently connected to My Higher self, consciously; awakening, embracing and blessing all my 144
monadic extensions.*

*I invoke Helius and his Divine counterpart
Vesta, Master Djwhal Khul and Vywamus to allow my ascension, activation, and full integration all the Codes of Light, Fire Codes, and Sacred Geometry Ciphers to facilitate the Healing and insight and alignment of all the twelve dimensions of reality.*

IiInvoke and intend the sacred activation of the “seven sacred seals” of my Cosmic body by Master Melchizedek and Archangel Metatron.

I invoke and decree the anchoring of the twelve strands DNA from our original matrix, our Etheric bodies, to be imprinted and secured in my physical body, according to Divine Will, through the Law of Grace.

I humbly ask, decree and dream awake the assistance of Archangel Metatron to ignite, to heal and to activate our Chalice⁴, allowing me to receive The Vision, The experience of Union with the Cosmic Light of God.

I AM that I AM

I AM that I AM

I AM that I AM

I ask that my heart temple be enhanced with the Cosmic Pyramid of violet Light, with permanent purifying fire of its sacred breath.

May its liberating flame be transmuted into the Golden Light of Christ-consciousness and may it descend and manifest upon all of us.

And so it is written, and so it is.

Om Shanti Aum.

THE CROWN OF STELLAR INTENSITY

Lady Mary was a Being of Light originally known to belong to the Angelic kingdom before she was called to take upon a human experience.

With her ascension, thirty years after Jesus' ascension, she assumed her previous estate as the Twin Ray of Archangel Raphael, of the Fifth Ray.

Lady Mary delivers and controls the activation of the constellation of energetic points on our heads called the Stellium. This focal point is also known as the Angel Chakra.

The Stellium is map of energetic points located in the head between the third eye chakra and the crown chakra. This constellation of points is also known as the Chalice, because it holds the keys for the net or grid of inter-relationships between different Universes and dimensions.

It presents itself as a mix of colors and hues between emerald green and purple, and it include the area of the skull to an area up to a foot above the cranium but also radiating its effects throughout the length of the spinal cord. Its major purpose is the filtering and purification of the energies of the 12 cosmic rays, regulating and allowing them to flow easily through our meridian system and other chakras. It functions as an antenna complex, receiving and translating frequencies into Light embodiments.

Its major point is very visible in the head of babies. This is an energetic center related to the manifestation of the will of the spirit and the activation of our bodies of light.

Once properly opened, the Light assimilated by this center can be understood as pure Light or information, because it is a point of connection with higher guidance of Angelic beings, masters and guides.

Through this vortex, all the information about your life purpose and instructions on how to make operable and viable this mission during your life time on earth.

This center works with the superior functions of the human brain, specifically the ones related to the frontal lobes.

Through the activation of the Stellium current, one increases the capability to use the elements of the physical brain to increase the multi-dimensional awareness of consciousness; telepathy, manifestation possibilities of thoughts into matter that may be somewhat classified as miracle working.

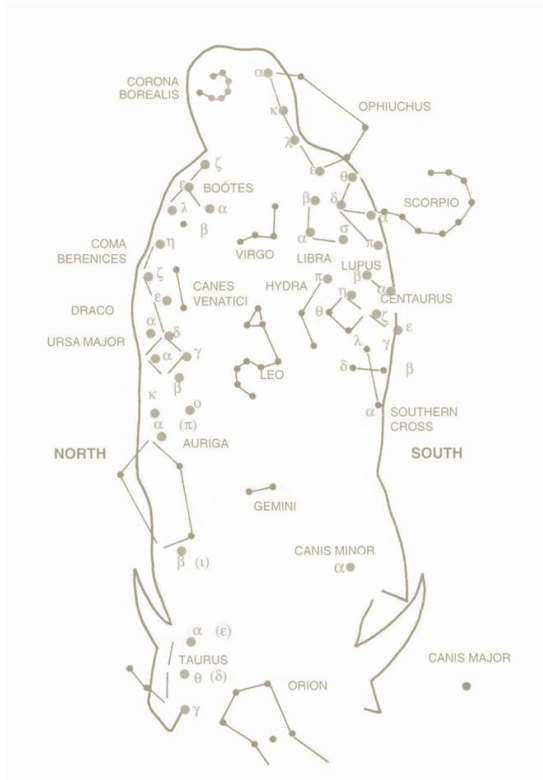

As this constellation of the points of the Stellium is associated with various degrees of Light and filtration of the Cosmic Rays into our Human system; therefore it is intimately connected with the manifestation of the will of spirit inside of our physical vehicles.

Usually this is one of the last portals to be closed when a soul is coming into embodiment and has already incorporated and synchronized the physical human functions into the organism completing soul+body scheme. These channels can continue to be open even after the third eye chakra and the crown chakra are already closed after the birth period.

It is known nonetheless that in some special beings these points never close, keeping an eternal flow of light energy though the inflow of Cosmos-individual and through Individual-Cosmos. If well developed, the individual will be able to express its internal light through the exteriorization of its rainbow bridge, with textured colors and hues that illuminate their Auric fields and it can be described as a golden sea of pulsating, breathing, radiant flame. These people tend to have the halo around their heads.

described as a golden sea of pulsating, breathing, radiant flame. Those people tend to have the halo around their heads.

These points are of vital importance since they make possible to us to receive and remember teaching, guidance and instructions from beings in different galactic dimensions, from different Solar logos, including ours, and Masters.

They are ultimately the beings that will assist you in the development and maintenance of these vortexes, to keep the variety and frequencies of the diverse cosmic systems coming to you, orchestrating a tapestry of rays, information and bliss through the constant dispensation of Divine Grace.

The main impediment to receive this attunement is the size and the overpowering presence of the Ego. Ego usually places a damper on the receiving end of the shower of graces that are constantly pouring upon us.

It is through the points of the Stellium that we receive vivid instructions about the positions, attitudes and paths we need to undertake in certain periods of our lives, especially when we engage on participating on the macrocosmic wave of planetary evolution.

There will be instructions absorbed as Codes of Light to be assimilated by us which contain the vault of instructions, situations and events to be played on our reality with the close assistance of our Higher Self and Monadic Self.

In other words, the primary function of the Stellium is the translation of different signatures of Light Codes into smaller portions, or particles, facilitating their assimilation into our Light Bodies. It builds up the coefficient of Light and the ability to expand human functions and super-human abilities allowing full manifestation of Spirit.

Its minor functions relates to the improvement of the resonance patterns of the frontal lobes, which expands the mental capabilities, eliminating obstructions and unwanted mental locks. As a consequence, our capabilities to analyze and understand facts , events and situations improve, and usually will expand the intelligence aptitude, as the multi-dimensional connections occurs.

This “chakra system” vibrates and absorbs the energies of the eternal feminine energy that emanates freely from the kabalistic Sephira Binah, or The Mother, which is part of the superior triad of the Divine Mind.

Finally we must say that the Stellium is, per se, a new chakra or vortex that once activated can properly facilitate life passages, transitions in our lives, amplifying our sensible self to be more self-aware, opening our psychic vision, and our understanding capabilities of all Meta-physical elements of our reality.

This is a key point on the broadening of communication with higher angelic realms, which retain the deep knowledge and wisdom of creation and its manifestations.

The Stellium aggregates these vortex points and also all the meridians that are located around them.

The anchoring and activation of its energies will open a direct channel of Light inside of our being that will allow us to reach and comprehend levels of consciousness that are beyond our common stage of perception, which greatly facilitate our personal healing in different aspects of our multidimensional living.

After the opening of the Stellium, it can be usually maintained through the chanting of the sound nurr, and following some recommended spiritual exercises. There are ways that this vortex can be activated naturally, but they usually involve a direct action of the Higher Self towards the Soul extension, and it occurs usually when there is a need of immediate healing and or communication to be established.

The attunement or activation to facilitate this opening should be done only when an individual is ready to get involved in a different level of service to all, through conscious healing, anchoring of Light, or weaving of alternatives, Lightweaving. Once activated and synchronized with all the points of the brain, the emanated energies from subtle dimensions will activate the netting of synaptic stimuli and the pineal and pituitary glands; which, in their turn, liberate neuron-chemic substances that will be working closely and deeply with the others centers of the body. This transformation is done harmonically but with steadiness.

The understanding of the Stellium is of extreme importance, especially for those that are dealing daily with the shift of frequencies, that deal with psychic readings, changelings and spiritual counseling; even though its awareness is desirable to all human beings, since its awakening brings always an extra assistance from the higher realms of consciousness of diverse beings into the minimum aspects of our daily lives.

SOME SUGGESTED ANCIENT BREATHING TECHNIQUES

Some of these breathing techniques are encouraged to be mastered by the seeker not only for the sake of the exercises of these Stellar Codes, but primarily because they naturally induce the optimum vibration of our mental fields to facilitate the connection with different levels of reality. The passing of stargates, the access to higher stages and dimensions presuppose the controlling of your vibrations. Breathing changes the frequency modulating the rate of your energy system.

Correct breathing is extremely important: it increases blood flow to the brain; it filters out dirty air so that it does not reach your lungs, and it imparts an overall feeling of wellbeing. Another fringe benefit is better posture. It is virtually impossible to breathe correctly while you are slouching. Thus, taking deep breaths always involves a straight back, no matter which breathing regimen you follow.

ALTERNATE NOSE BREATHING

Sit comfortably and use your right thumb to close off your right nostril, breathing in with your left nostril. When you have fully inhaled, close the left nostril, release the right one, and breathe out through the right one. Keep the right nostril open and inhale again, then close it, release the left nostril and exhale through it, and so forth. This breathing should be rhythmic: count to five with each inhalation and exhalation. Do three rounds at first, then add one round each time until you reach eight cycles.

THE STIMULATING BREATH

This technique is a very simple exercise that you can perform anywhere, even sitting behind the wheel in traffic when you are getting sleepy. It serves to increase mental energy and alertness. You rapidly inhale and then exhale with your mouth closed. Keep your mouth relaxed during the exercise. These breaths should be as short as possible, almost a kind of panting, and keep them even in length. Ideally, you should manage three cycles per second. In the beginning, try for 15 seconds in a row. You will be able to quickly increase these by about 5 seconds each time you do the exercise until you can manage a whole minute. You should feel invigorated by this exercise.

If you begin to feel light-headed like you are hyper-ventilating, slow your breathing for a few cycles before continuing.

HEALING BREATH TECHNIQUE

The healing breath technique, Sudarshan Kriya, is said to eliminate negativity. Its success rests on the breath's rhythm, which leads to meditation, and meditation in turn liberates the mind of noxious emotions, such as fear, guilt and anger. The main idea here is awareness of the breath and to follow its passage through the nostrils into the lungs and out of the body again. Being aware of the breath allows you to be present in the moment, which is a state of being conducive to sharpening perception and observation.

VICTORY BREATH

This breath, Prananyama, is cleansing for the mind and body. It removes phlegm from the lungs and helps lower high blood pressure. In addition, it soothes and increases stamina. Sit comfortably and perfectly balanced with a straight back. Extend your arms, resting the backs of your wrists on your knees and join the tips of your index finger and thumb. Close your eyes and exhale as completely as you can. Now, inhale through both nostrils in a slow steady way that makes the incoming air hit the roof of your mouth and produce a sound like "saaa". Fill up your lungs, being careful to keep your abdomen pulled in toward the spine as this is not an abdominal breath. Once your lungs are inflated to the maximum, hold your breath for a couple of seconds, then exhale slowly and steadily, emptying your lungs completely. Your abdomen should remain tight while you slowly relax your diaphragm. The outgoing air should again brush the roof of your mouth, creating another sound like "ha." Repeat this breathing method for 5 to 10 minutes.

THREE-PART BREATH

Three-part breath is so called because it is performed by inhaling and pausing three times before exhaling completely. This breathing technique is useful at any time to deepen the breath and help slow down an overactive mind.

To emphasize this technique, place one hand on the lowest part of the belly and the other on the top of the chest. Inhale until you feel your bottom hand rise with your breath, pause. Inhale again to the center of the belly, pause. Inhale to the top hand on the sternum, pause. Slowly exhale from the top hand to the bottom.

EXERCISE NUMBER 1: INTERNALIZING THE DIVINE PRESENCE

This is an exercise that will prepare the seeker to receive and to be able to retain more of the Divine energy, Prana, and by doing so, all the chakras and stellium points will naturally open.

PREPARATION

Start by lying in a comfortable position and inducing a complete state of relaxation. Use the technique you most feel comfortable with to prompt this state. Close your eyes and try to keep all the impressions of the exterior world outside of your state of consciousness.

TECHNIQUE

Initiate the spiritual process by activating your Soul Star. The Soul Star is activated by invoking the Soul Mantra three times:

I AM the Monad,

I AM the Soul

I AM Light Divine.

I AM Love,

I AM Will,

I AM Fixed Design.

This time, as you imagine and invoke the Soul Star, you may bathe it with very strong and defined bronze / gold colors, as they are continuously melting together as they radiate pure light.

Chant internally the following mantra at least three to open the circle of Divine protection.

Kadoish, Kadoish, Kadoish, Adonai Tsabayoth

This mantra is your secret password inside of any divine circle of Light or temple in the multi-dimensional Universe. It vibrates respect, devotion, honor and divine alignment. As the gesture of namaskaram⁵, the chanting of Kadoish brings the highest vibrations to the energetic grids inside, outside and all around the surroundings of body.

Now, lying down and completely relaxed, imagine the skin of your cheeks in your face is stretched wide open and all your pores are gradually opening. Imagine that suddenly large portions of your face are getting porous and creating lacunas in your face. It is not a scary experience, it is interesting. Since we have been working previously with all the memory cells debris and cleansing of spaces between chakras, vortexes and Meridian blockages, this will be a transmutation experience that does not need to be extended for long.

Spread this experience and visualization to the skin of your forehead, temples, nose and your whole face. Contemplate that in each and every part of your head, the skin is no longer composed of a uniform fabric of cells, but instead of huge holes and spaces, almost with the porosity of a sea sponge. Include the back of your head, neck and scalp.

Progressively, extend the sensation provoked by this exercise to the rest of your body, from the head down: shoulders, arms, thorax, spine, pelvis, abdomen, thighs, legs and feet.

As you progress with your virtual scanning of all your body and internal organs, try to visualize your organs just attached inside through a very thin net, a series of holes weaved knit together.

When you finally reach your toes, you should slow down, to obtain the full sensation of this exercise. The sensation, once attained will require no further repetition.

Start again, one more time from the top of your head. This time the visualization will be concentrating on the inside of the body rather than the outside. Start with your brain. Work on the sensation and the visualization that the space between the cells of your brain is full of holes. Apprehend the visual in your mind that the interstitial spaces of the brain tissue are getting bigger and sponge like. This phase may take a little bit more time, but once reached it can make it easier to obtain it again in later date.

The feeling of a sponge-like organ should be applied to every single organ of the body, one by one, but always start with the brain. Replace gradually every single boney or hard tissue in your body to the sponge-like texture of your visualization. Everything should be looking like nothing but holes tighten together by a very thin membrane.

The objective of this exercise is to make the seeker aware of the real consistence of the physical and extra-physical bodies, and to induce the knowledge of our real holographic nature.

EXERCISE NUMBER 2

This variation of exercise number one above can bring the intensity of the sensation and the real holographic nature of our beings. There is, in truth, no concrete impediment built in our systems to receive the inspiration, spiritual energies and manifestation of grace in our lives, just the self-imposed limitations.

In this second phase, again lying comfortably, start some rhythmic breathing, because through the channeling of Prana, the clouding nature of the mind can be successfully calmed.

When completely relaxed, bring back the sensation of the porosity of your body, bones, organs and glands into your awareness.

Now, start this exercise, bringing the air into your system bringing it down as you have been breathing from the top of your head. Bring the air down, from your head to your toes. Do it a couple of times. As you breathe in, imagine that the air is saturating all the sponge like body and it is getting out all the way along the back of your head.

You can vary this exercise greatly and introduce new concepts such as breathing from the sole of your feet, and exhaling from your crown chakra. Whatever variation you may plan to introduce to your exercise, do not forget to consciously keep your attention in the trajectory of the air, its circulation through all the energy system of the body, and do not forget to keep the sensation of porosity of your physical body alive during the practice.

By imagining the porosity of our bodies, and seeing how the air can saturate it, we are actually arriving to the consciousness of the ever-presence and power of God, and how All That Is can pervade every single cell and atom of our bodies. Through this realization, every other mystical experience the seeker may have received through the practices of the spiritual path can be amplified in intensity though the concentration of this meditation: the truthful realization that we are an extension of God's infinite spirit of real love.

Note: The Seeker must experience a series of transformations that are subsequential to the practice of these exercises of Internalizing the Divine Presence. One of the effects is in the change on how one truly perceives reality, meaning that one should also strive to eliminate any residue or vestige of Duality in your daily thinking. In order to do that, the seeker is advised to eradicate feelings such as doubt and fear; it requires practice, nonetheless, but it will require commitment with discernment, with truth and dedication.

WORKING WITH THE GOLDEN LIQUID LIGHT

From ancient Buddhist Sutras to sacred Vedic texts and even through the passing of wisdom through the most diverse spectrum of Schools of Knowledge; we find that working with the Golden Light has held an esteemed place of reverence as a measure of the Divine and Holy Light of Pure dispensation of Grace.

We speak of a period long ago, lost in the sands of time, a "Golden Age" where humanity and all sentient life dwelled with higher Angelic and Devic beings in perfect harmony with All That Is. We refer to a period where the Light of Grace inhabited with us the dwellings of Mother Earth.

It is said that the Golden Light awakens the original formations of the Language of Light in our Divine template: these are encoded messages in a language of energetic geometrical symbols, sound vibrations, prearranged frequencies and archetypical images.

Further and more deeply, the Golden Light is a harbinger of the Divine Winged Messenger who brings about the next age or epoch in humanities transformation.

We will describe some initial techniques that will facilitate the sealing of the interchakral and subtle bodies' spaces after the cleansing and the progressive collapsing of the Space Between.

In the Spica Attunement, another primarily feminine attunement, the seeker was introduced to the work with the Platinum Liquid Light, the original energy that is able to restore the defective energetic template and reset its functionality and potential.

The second part of this process is to start working with the Golden Liquid Light, now on a different level, as the original garment for our vehicles. The Golden Liquid Light can be defined as the original material of your higher Light bodies in other dimensions. It is through your Gold Light Body, that you access your true essence, solar self and ascension through the Central Sun.

In the course of the building of the highest personal level⁶, it is the gold in color Lightbody that carries the impressions of past lives. It is equivalent to the Theosophical Causal Body. Alternatively, it might be a higher octave of the etheric body: there is really no way to tell from the limited information available.

The use of the Golden Light can restore, repair, repattern and accelerate manifestation, because as we build the familiarity with this “element”, we also build and activate our bodies of Light in multiple dimensions, therefore allowing the soul to be more mobile to perform not only its purpose, but to help this task through complete conscious intentional volition.

⁶ apart from the mysterious "eighth" and "ninth" bodies

EXERCISE WITH THE GOLDEN LIQUID LIGHT

Calm yourself, sit comfortably and activate your Soul Star.

Chant as an opening salutation the Kadoish.

Call Upon your I AM Presence to assist you during this experience.

Call to the Higher Realms to be assisted by the Maha Chohan of the Golden Ray to provide with this dispensation of Grace.

This Golden Ray is guarded by the Higher Beings that only serve the Christ-Consciousness in the Universe. They abide by the Law of One and work diligently through the guidance of the Divine Mind of ALL THAT IS.

Visualize a big jar in front of you. With your mind's eyes see this jar filled with pure luminous liquid Light, very dense and consistent.

Visualize this liquid to be poured slowly upon all the energy centers of your body. Start the immersion on this Golden Liquid Light from your crown chakra.

Imagine and feel the Golden Liquid Light descending downwards in clockwise rotation, flowing slowly like honey, and, as it continues its journey, transforming every single cell, every single energy center and your entire energy grid in pure gold.

Note: after performing the first exercise of this eBook, the structure of your body will have changed to a more open, light and holographic nature. It is an exercise that will rarefy your dense conception of your body and will eventually eliminate attachments in various levels.

As it proceeds with its movement downwards, this Golden Liquid Light restores all the functionality of your chakras which are now vibrating on a higher scale of cosmic frequencies. Its density unblocks and efficiently eliminates all the residues that are left over your previous cleansings.

The use of the Golden Liquid Light guarantees that you are sealing a new pattern inside of your energetic field and, at the same time, you are expanding this field of consciousness to its full potentiality.

Practice this exercise with great attention and zeal, and do not rush when working with any of the various Liquid Lights, especially the Golden one.

As you calmly visit every one of your centers, let the Golden Liquid Light fill the gaps of your physical body, your etheric body, your emotional body, your mental body.

Breathe in the Golden Liquid Light now from your heart chakra and use it to pump up your chakras together with this decree: integrate and expand.

Feel that you are unity of Light, in an ever-expanding field of Light, joy and Grace. Decree that you will only allow the energies of higher vibrations and Christ-Consciousness to have access to your energetic template.

You have now sealed this coefficient of energy inside of your field.

As the energy continues downwards, visualize it reaching the ground around your feet and being immediately received by Mother Earth and converted into flowers, new life and sustenance, healing and restoration to her complex system of beings.

As the energy continues to pour downwards through Divine Grace, more and more flowers start to bloom and they start to color the world.

You can apply the Golden Liquid Light to your friends, but first make sure they have already undergone some type of spiritual cleansing.

Close this ceremony by thanking the abundant blessings of the Maha Chohan, Guardian of the Golden Liquid Light for his compassionate gift to you and all that you share your existence with. Bow in Namaskaram position with a grateful heart.

Thank the presence of your Divine I AM Presence, for allowing you to receive this gift and entrust your Soul with the everlasting effects of this Light, to be activated by your Higher Self in your benefit, or at the benefit of others, as an intention for service.

Bring your consciousness back to the present moment; breathe deeply at least three times before you open your eyes, and say three times:

I AM a Column of Light at the Temple of the Central Sun. Om Shanti Aum.

Kadoish, Kadoish, Kadoish, Adonai Tsabayoth.

Seal your gratitude by chanting:

Om Shanti Aum.

UNDERSTANDING THE STELLIUM POINTS AND THE LEVELS OF THE HUMAN BRAIN

Psychic energetics distinguishes three different organizational structures inside of the human being:

1. The Encephalus;
2. The conjunction of all the Plexus, or brain connections, and;
3. The vertebral spine.

Even though all these elements are part of the same nervous system, they each present differences that allow us to consider them as separate sections or subdivisions. From this trine system, the configuration of Plexus may seem to work as the brain in itself, but in a very sparse way and assembled as sections, nevertheless, united in its totality and functionality.

The other two subsystems are easier to visualize.

In all the three parts there is the passing of bioelectric impulses, which compose the magnetic fields of your lower and higher minds, as the result of the waves and impulses of bioelectric current which forms the majority of etheric body.

The plexus centers of connectivity and activities are concentrated inside the zones where the nervous tissue is more concentrated, because it will present a higher number of circuits from where the bioelectric current will need to pass. These zones are the ones that provide us with the awareness of our immediate senses; the impressions of our external world come to us as the result of vibrations, chemical reactions and physical phenomena, each one of these producing different signs. These sensitive parts of our brains that function as translators and convertors of energy, decoding the stimuli received from the world at large into unities that can be easily absorbed by the brain/mind system.

The seven points where the plethora of channels meets are known to be sensors of apprehension and gathering of energies. These are your seven primary physical chakras.

DECREE FOR THE OPENING OF THE STELLIUM

*In the name of the Cosmic Presence I Am,
In the name of The Cosmic Christ, I invoke the presence and assistance of Master El Morya and the Stellar Being of Aldebaran, Archangel Michael and his Legions of the Blue Lightening angels to protect our chakras with zeal during this alchemical purification.*

I Intend the Presence of Master Saint Germaine and Lady Portia to assist in the Cleansing of all four of my lower bodies. I humbly request to eliminate from my system, everything that is not in the perfected state of God's Divine Grace.

I invoke the intercession of Lady Mary to be the patron of this spiritual work, supporting and patronizing the continuous purification and growth of the volume of my energy centers.

May the Violet Flame descend upon my integral being, saturating every fiber body, multi-dimensionally, nonlinearly in time and space, bringing only the perfection of vibration of the Seed of Christ-consciousness within myself.

May the Light descend. And so it is...

Om Shanti Aum.

VISUALIZATION: THE OPENING OF THE STELLIUM

Again, sit comfortably in a place where you can't be disturbed.

Activate your Soul Star chakra.

Bring your thoughts to another level of consciousness, opening your heart chakra to the syntony of love that loves without name.

Breathe deeply, without straining your system, avoiding creating harmful karmic thoughts inside. Bring the breathing into your heart chamber from the top of your head down to the sacred heart, where the trine flame burns and purifying all thoughts, images, fears, doubts, feelings, inherited emotions and sensations.

Visualize a ray of Golden Light coming from a point just in front of your third eye chakra, as a powerful energetic point. This energy is so intense that permeates your entire being, filling your higher mind with liveliness and vitality. Try to have this ray continuously bathing this chakral point for at least two minutes.

Bring this energy to be completely absorbed by the heart chamber, inside of your crystal heart.

Now, visualize a second ray of Light coming from the front center again but this time from the left side of your spectrum of vision.

This whitish-golden⁷ ray is now entering your left temple. It is transformed into a balsamic light, cleansing all the intermittent thoughts that were projected upon your energy matrix since you came to a dualistic existence. Bathe in this energy for at least 2 minutes. Bring it down to your heart chamber to be absorbed and imprinted with the assistance of your trine flame.

Now visualize a third Ray coming from the front, but more towards the right side of your field of vision; this light is of a very pale and almost transparent golden-yellowish tone.

Let it come and purify your energetic matrix, through the transmuting and transubstantiating of all the surcharged elements that were part of the journey of your soul as a unity, encompassing the life experiences of all your 144 monadic manifestations.

Again, allow this energy to enter and permeate your entire being starting from your head, and slowly irradiating to all your body. Continue to breathe deeply, and bring the energy back to your Higher Heart chamber.

At this point, some random thoughts may want to come into your mind screen. Do not fight the images or words, just acknowledge them and let them go. They may not be necessarily thoughts and images that are coming from and for you, but part of the generational cleansing of your memory cells.

This exercise was design to auxiliate the seeker to cleanse their mental screen, and can be a valuable tool on the working towards astral projection.

PART II: ALCYONE ATTUNEMENT AND INITIATION

THE BREATHS OF THE ELOHIM

The Two Breaths of the Elohim are truly One Breath that helps us become One with Our Creator.

1ST BREATH

This breath of the Elohim is a very easy and gentle there is no need to breathe in a strenuous manner. As you breathe in and out say the names of the Seven Spirits silently. In time the practice of this breath will become very relaxed and easy.

2ND BREATH

This Elohim Breath of the Godhead is an also very easy and gentle. There is no need to breathe in a strenuous manner. You will notice that the Elohim Breath of the Godhead is a little deeper than the Breath of the Elohim, the first breath. As you breathe in and out say the names of the Seven Personalities of the Godhead silently. In time the practice of this breath will become very relaxed and easy.

3RD BREATH

Once you have learned both breaths separately you are ready for the third breath. The third breath is a little more difficult but miraculous. It is the combining of the two breaths into one breath. Begin by breathing the 2nd breath until it is smooth and comfortable then begin to add the names of the Seven Spirits into the Elohim Breath of the Godhead.

As you say the names of:

1. Miriam /Yeshua, also hear the name of Hope along with them.
2. Yasodhara/Buddha, also hear the name of Faith along with them.
3. Uma/Brahman, also hear the name of Love along with them.
4. Radharani/Krishna, also hear the name of OM along with them.
5. I Am That I Am, also hear the name of Christ along with them.
6. Unmanifested One, also hear the name of the Holy Spirit along with them.
7. Melchizedek, also hear the name of God along with them.

The next step is to add the names of the Elohim. Silently say one name on each beat of your heart like this:

Breathe In:

- Hope- first beat
- Faith- second beat
- Love- third beat
- Om- fourth beat
- Christ- fifth beat
- Holy Spirit- sixth beat
- God- seventh beat

Breathe Out:

- Hope- first beat
- Faith- second beat
- Love- third beat
- Om- fourth beat
- Christ- fifth beat
- Holy Spirit- sixth beat
- God- seventh beat

The use of the Elohim Breath greatly increases the flow of Ki. With a little practice it becomes quite natural to breathe in this way in hands on healing, distant healing and passing of attunements. It is also a great breath for meditation and in ascending Ki energy and connecting with "The Highest Source." It is not about belief systems but about direct experience. Try for yourself and see.

Another step is to bring in the Kundalini Yoga influence. This is done by using the seven names with the seven chakras. Start with the base of the spine and proceed upward to the crown on the in breath and repeat this sequence from the base of the spine to the crown on the out breath. This is a gentle process that does not force the Kundalini current to open. It is a natural unfoldment.

It is highly recommended that a person working with the Elohim Breath become familiar with the teachings of the Masters.

PRAYER OF THE ELOHIM

*Our Mother and Father of Heaven Holy are Your Names Your Kingdom come, Your
Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven
Give us this day our daily bread Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us Lead us from temptation and deliver us from illusion For yours is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory forever,*

Amen

ATTUNEMENT PROCEDURE

The time spent in each position below is only a general guideline to give you an idea of the attunement. Use your intuition as to how long to spend in each position. This is an easy thing and just let it flow naturally. Don't let yourself concentrate on how long to stay in a position. That will distract you. Just feel your way through it. The whole attunement takes about an hour. It can last a little longer. It is a good idea to allow another hour of time to remain in a quiet space and experience the attunement energy, shifts in consciousness, adjustments to your energy fields, etc. that may happen in this opening of the Heart and the Whole Subtle Anatomy.

1. We ask to be received into the Circle of Light. (Hands together at the heart)

2. Breathe the breath of the Elohim, palms up (or if you don't know it, just a deep even breath).

3. Visualize the White Light coming down into the Crown- Breathe the Breath of the Elohim.

4. As you open your arms up to shoulder length- visualize the rainbow forming between your hands. Breathe Here. Palms face up.

5. Turn the Palms face down- to ground the rainbow into the earth. Breathe again.

6. Brings hands back to the heart and say "Namaste" and bow to that light that dwells within us all.

"Then the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being."

~Genesis 2.7

ASPIRANT PREPARATION

The Attunement and Initiation takes about an hour. It is important that the Aspirant be in a comfortable position and puts themselves in a receptive meditative state.

The Aspirant then activates their Soul Star by reciting the Soul Mantra three times:

*I am the Monad,
I am the Soul,
I am Light Divine.
I am Love,
I am Will,
I am Fixed Design.*

ATTUNEMENT PROCESS

Choose a quiet place for the attunement.

The attunement process need not be memorized but can be read aloud.

The Student should be seated in a comfortable chair.

Read the Following Prayer out loud.

AFFIRMATION OF THE HIGHER SELF

Unmanifested ONE,

*We ask to be channels of Your Presence
Your Guidance,*

Your Blessing, Your Anointing,

Your Love in this healing and attunement process,

My sincere gratitude,

Amen.

PREPARATION

*Our One Creator, through our Faith in You,
We pray that you open and establish an Attunement Link with us.*

Om Shanti Ohm

(Pause for the link to be established)

Our One Creator, We thank you for opening and establishing the Attunement Link with us. We pray that you also establish a permanent connection with Students Name.

*Our One Creator, through our Faith in You,
We pray that you give to Students Name,
Spica Code, the First Degree Attunement of Stellar Code at this time.*

Om Shanti Ohm

Spend some time in meditation, with your eyes closed. At this point, the three Empowerments of the Alcyone Attunement – Alcyone, the Pleiades and Aldebaran, will take place. In your mind's eye, visualize the Alcyone Symbol, or Syllable⁸, being drawn in Golden Liquid Ligh. While doing this, with your right hand, trace the Symbol in front of you. Slowly and deliberately do this three times. Visualize the Symbol becoming a Thread connecting your Heart Chakra to your Higher Self, your I AM Presence. Feel the energetic vibration being received through your Heart Chakra and radiating out through your body, traveling up and down your Central Channel. Take a few minutes to receive and experience the Empowerment Energy into your whole being, raising your energetic signature.

Repeat this with the Pleiades and the Aldebaran Empowerments.

When the three threads are finished, visualize the Threads braiding themselves into a single Strand. When they are braided, fuse them together into a undivided whole by using the symbol of the Harmonizer. Feel the magnified flow of Light and Love for you from your I AM

⁸ In writing, a syllable is a written representation of a sequence of sounds, or audible vibrations. In the same way, the Symbols of the Empowerments are also Syllables, as they are representative of energetic vibratory signatures.

Presence increase. Feel the Light safely filling you as water in a vessel and when you can hold no more, feel the Light gently being absorbed into every fiber of your Being.

When you are ready, open your eyes and come back to yourself. Complete the process with the following Prayer of Gratitude

Our One Creator, I acknowledge and we thank you for the full attunement and activation of Alcyone Code, the chord of the Stellar Code in and through my whole being.

We thank you for establishing this permanent attunement and connection with and through you.

Om Shanti Ohm

I AM grateful for your continual Presence, Guidance, Blessing, Anointing and Love in this healing and attunement process.

Our One Creator, I AM sincerely Thankful for your continual Healing, Peace, Abundance, Joy, Love and Happiness and enlightenment in my Life.

I AM fully aware and receptive to receive the attunement offered by the Teachers of Humanity Healing at this time.

Fiat Lux,

Om Shanti Ohm

THE INITIATION

After the Teacher has made the initial Bridge and the Student the resultant conduit (the Empowerment) for the three energetic frequencies of the Alcyone Stellar Code™ and they have woven together into the Alcyone Strand of the Lightweaver Cord (the Attunement), the Teacher will Seal the Strand to prevent unraveling and the resultant disconnection. The Teacher does this by impressing upon the Strand the esoteric Symbols of the Star and its corresponding Angel. The braiding and Sealing process is also aided by the Harmonizing Symbol.

The techniques and symbols for this are part of the Teaching Certification for the Stellar Codes™, which is available to all that complete the Stellar Code™ Matrix Mastery program.

USING THE SYMBOLS

The Stellar Code™ Attunements and Initiation are done through the realignment and rewiring of the basic energetic points in our subtle bodies. A syllable (Greek: συλλαβή) is a unit of organization for a sequence of speech sounds, audible vibrations of a wave frequency. The Stellar Code™ is a collection of these syllables that carry the tie between humans and the “Music of the Spheres”⁹. They are more than a symbol; they are the pictographic representation of the Vibration of each one of the Stars.

The Symbols may be drawn, calligraphy style, or visualized in their entirety, but they are most effective when traced in the air. They are a visual representation of a Blessing, or Benediction. When this is done, they should be traced with the first two fingers of the right hand. This position will feel intuitively correct as it has been the hand position for Benedictions in various Faiths throughout history.

ALCYONE ATTUNEMENT SYMBOLS

Stellar Code™ - Alcyone is one of the Strands that make up the Cord of the Lightweaver. Through the Empowerments of this Stellar Code™, the Gifts of the Spirit that you have received can be woven into your integral being and begin to work in syntony with each other

ALCYONE

The Alcyone Empowerment brings a further entrainment of the vibrational energy emanating from the Spiritual Center of our reality and the definite connection to easily bring the Seeker to the steps of the Atrium of the Temple of the Central Sun.

It is interesting to note that if this symbol were rotated from a 3-D perspective and looked down on from the top, it would look like the Reiki power symbol, the Cho Ku Rei.

PLEIADES

The Pleiades Empowerment connects the Seeker with the Divine Feminine, or Shekinah, strengthening the Divine Feminine Principal within the Seeker, allowing a more harmonious balance with the Divine Masculine¹⁰.

The Empowerment also helps to align the energetic template to more easily absorb the spiritual energy of the Seven Rays as the Seven Stars of the Pleiades are where the spiritual energy of the Seven Rays emanate from, filtering through the seven Masters of the Seven Rays to the human race.

ALDEBARAN

The Archangel Michael's star, Aldebaran, is the Star of Illumination and holds the secret of the balance and the mind of the First Ray of Will. The Aldebaran Empowerment embodies the protective elements of the Divine Masculine and works in conjunction with the Pleiades Empowerment to facilitate a Greater Balance centered on the fulcrum of Alcyone.

In addition, the vibration of this Empowerment creates a resonance with the source, creating a "protective space" for the Seeker when accessing the higher planes and, in particular, the access to the Temple of the Central Sun.

¹⁰ The gender of the Seeker has little to do with the integration of the Divine Feminine in the energetic template on this plane of existence, merely the propensity of self-identification.

HARMONIZING SYMBOL

The symbol of the Harmonizer brings the possibility of inclusion of all elements of reality. The Energy of the Cosmic Mother/Earthly Mother, passive energy merges with the energy of the Father, an active one to bring to fruition the energy of manifestation. This symbol is a representation of the diverse energetic frequencies of the Universe expressed in the 3D matrix. It is a useful symbol for closing ceremonies, rituals and healing processes, as a seal, where not only cleansing power can be perceived, but the certainty that the divine will be done and the Universe will provide the sequential follow up for the action.

It is also an important enabler for the weaving of the Threads of the different Empowerments into the single Strand of each Stellar Code™.
